Notification of Debarment

Barrett Communications Pty Ltd, 47 Discovery Drive, Bibra Lake, Western Australia 6163, P O Box 1214, Bibra Lake WA 6965, submitted Tender for "Procurement of Specialized ICT Equipment (VHF and HF Radio Terminals), Lot-2: HF, Package No.: URP-DNCC/G-1.1" on July 20, 2017 to Urban Resilience Project-DNCC Part.

During evaluation of tender, it was found that the bidder submitted an edited and manipulated documents for JITC (Joint Interoperability Test Command) reports. The bidder submitted JITC certificate that mentioned for Model No.: 2030/2050/2090. During verification of the certificate with JITC authority, they informed that Model No. 2050 and 2090 are tested but Model No. 2030 is not tested. This is a fraudulent act according to PPR-2008, Rule 127 (2) (kha) and World Bank Policy – Corruption and fraudulent Practice, Para 1.16 (a) (ii). The bidder was asked explanation on October 30, 2017 why the Firm would not be debarred to participate tender in DNCC. The bidder replied that they had edited the reports for simplification. The reply of the bidder was not acceptable and hence proved the fraudulent allegation against the bidder.

Now the DNCC Authority declares debarred of "Barrett Communications Pty Ltd, 47 Discovery Drive, Bibra Lake, Western Australia 6163, P O Box 1214, Bibra Lake WA 6965" for the next one (1) year to participate any tender under URP-DNCC Part and Dhaka North City Corporation.
